

JACOBSON FAMILY

Building a Legacy of Care

CELEBRATING 25 YEARS ON THE HELZBERG CAMPUS

A Legacy of Leadership and Community

Howard and Rosalyn Jacobson were raised to be active members of the Jewish and Kansas City community, learning the importance of giving back. From contributing to the Jewish National Fund “Blue Box” as children to supporting organizations throughout their lives, they have dedicated themselves to helping others and strengthening the community.

Village Shalom Connection

Howard and Rosalyn have been involved with Village Shalom from its earliest days, serving on the board and supporting fundraising efforts for the campus at 78th & Holmes. Their family and friends—including Jackie Slutsky, Flossie Pack, Mel and Lore Malilin, Irene Dreiseszun, Stan & Joyce Zeldin, Stan & Toby Weinberg, Richard & Barbara Atlas, Bob & Aletha Simon, Judy Jacobs, Ann Stern, Norman Shaffer, Margie Brand, and Donna Gould Cohen and many more—have long made Village Shalom their home.

Cherished Memories

Howard fondly remembers visiting early villa owners, enjoying dinners with family and friends, and seeing his sister Jackie’s apartment and villa

Relatives and friends at Village Shalom: Jackie Slutsky, Flossie Pack z'l, Mel & Lore Mallin z'l, Irene Dreiseszun z'l, Stan & Joyce Zeldin, Stan & Toby Weinberg, Richard & Barbara Atlas, Bob & Aletha Simon, Judy Jacobs, Ann Stern, Norman Shaffer, Margie Brand, and Donna Gould Cohen and many more

over the years. Rosalyn and Howard have been inspired by the dedication of Village Shalom staff and trustees, recognizing their commitment to improving the lives of residents and the broader community.

Jewish Values

Village Shalom reflects the Jacobsons’ lifelong commitment to a vibrant Jewish environment, where seniors can live with dignity, connection, and pride in their community.

“Our goal has always been to help build organizations that enrich the lives of our fellow citizens and assist those in need. We are proud to continue our family tradition of giving and community support.”

Proud to be part of the story that shaped 25 years on the Helzberg Campus.

